Designing tomorrow's systems with today's conscience

Author, Technologist, and Futurist.

22+ years across global tech (Infosys, SAP, McKinsey), clean-tech ventures, and AI startups.

I speak and write at the intersection of AI, gender, and society; unpacking how algorithms are shaping identity, work, and the future of being human.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

- ✓ The Gender Glitch: How AI Codes Our Identities
- ✓ Digital Feminism: Beyond Hashtags to System Change
- ✓ Building Tech With Conscience: Lessons From Startups to Systems
- ✓ The Future of Work

AUDIENCES I SPEAK TO

- ✓ Universities & students (AI, gender studies, future of work)
- ✓ Corporates & leadership teams (DEI, tech adoption, AI ethics)
- ✓ Conferences & panels (AI, innovation, women in tech, policy)

WHY INVITE ME

- I blend hard data with sharp stories.
- I bring both an Indian and global lens to future challenges.
- I leave audiences with questions they can't ignore.

PAST ENGAGEMENTS

- Amity-University of Nottingham Symposium (2025)
- Industry talks on sustainability, AI, and digital culture
- Author talks and media features (Times of India, Outlook India, etc.)

TESTIMONIALS

"Her presentation mesmerized the audience across levels, from undergraduates to PhD scholars, and sparked insightful ideas that carried into the symposium's innovation competition."

— Professor, Amity-University of Nottingham Symposium (2025)

"Lakshmi's session was eye-opening and deeply relevant. A masterclass in connecting gender, tech, and systems of power."

— NGO Founder
